Upon successful completion of all High School program academic requirements and fulfillment of your financial obligations, you will be awarded a Penn Foster High School diploma. Penn Foster reserves the right to academically cancel any student who fails to demonstrate satisfactory progress toward his or her diploma. Cheating or other violations of the High School Catalog may also result in disciplinary action up to and including the termination of your enrollment. The course is conducted online; communications relating to the Program will typically be made via text, telephone (including autodialer) or email and you will need high speed internet access to participate in the Program. Penn Foster reserves the right to change program content and materials as appropriate.

Program Price:

The Program price identified on the front of this Enrollment Agreement includes (a) your tuition which covers all instructional content, online licensed course materials (for term of license), academic and service support, and examinations, (b) your Registration Fee, and (c) a finance charge if you have selected a Monthly Payment Plan. However, you will be charged for any replacement printed program material you may require as a result of loss, damage or theft to the original. If your enrollment is terminated because you have violated the terms of your enrollment, you will remain responsible for payment of the full Program Price and any fees you may incur by reason of lateness or otherwise.

Transferring Credits. To request transfer credits for high school work previously completed, an official transcript from an accredited institution must be submitted to Penn Foster for evaluation within 60 days following your enrollment. Not all high school courses are eligible for transfer credit but if transfer credits are approved, an adjustment to your financial obligation will be made following your enrollment. Late Payments:

You will be charged a Late Fee of $10.00 if your monthly payment is late by 10 days or more. If you do not pay the overdue amount and late fee within 40 days, Penn Foster reserves the right to suspend your enrollment in the Program immediately and require you to pay the outstanding balance of the program price associated with the payment plan you chose. In addition, you will be responsible for any collection costs, including legal fees, incurred by Penn Foster to collect amounts owed.

In addition, you or your legal guardian (as applicable) are solely responsible for determining if the Program satisfies the state and local education requirements in your local district, including those applicable to compulsory age students. Penn Foster will not provide a refund or be liable for any losses that you may incur as a result of your inability to gain employment or admission to any institution, or the Program failing to satisfy state or local requirements.

NOTICE TO GUARANTOR:

You have been asked to guarantee payment to Penn Foster for the tuition and fees of the student borrower identified on the front page of this Enrollment Agreement. Think carefully before you do so. If the borrower doesn't pay the full amount of the debt, you will have to pay the unpaid amount. You may also have to pay late fees and collection costs, which increase this amount. Be sure you can afford to pay if you have to, and that you want to accept this responsibility. Penn Foster can collect this debt from you without first trying to collect from the borrower and may use the same collection methods against you that can be used against the borrower. If this debt is ever in default, that fact may become a part of your credit record. You should carefully read all of the provisions of this Enrollment Agreement before you sign it as a guarantor.
