Federal Loan Alternatives

Penn Foster Training Institute does not participate in the federal student loan programs, which consist of: Perkins Loans for Students (if in effect), Stafford Loans for Students, and PLUS Loans for Parents and Graduate/Professional Students. For additional information about federal student loans, contact the U.S. Department of Education at <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/>.

Self Certification

This Self-Certification will confirm that you understand the following important information about available student financial aid:

- Penn Foster Training Institute does not participate in the federal student loan programs, which consist of Perkins Loans for Students (if and when in effect), Stafford Loans for Students and PLUS loans for Parents and Graduate/Professional Students. For additional information about federal student loans contact the U.S. Department of Education at www.studentaid.ed.gov.
- Penn Foster Training Institute is not a Title IV school and therefore you cannot use Title IV federal grants, loans and work-study aid to pay for Penn Foster Training Institute Programs.
- A private education loan, including the financing you receive from Penn Foster Training Institute by using a monthly payment plan, may reduce your eligibility for free or lower-cost federal, state, or other student financial aid.
- You are strongly encouraged to pursue the availability of free or lower-cost financial aid from state, federal, local or other sources, including other private lenders.

Under Federal Law, Penn Foster Training Institute is required to provide you a copy of the government's extended version of the Self-Certification form. It can be viewed on your Student Portal once your Enrollment is complete. Please note, however, that as stated above, Penn Foster Training Institute does not participate in the federal loan program and is not a Title IV school.

If you have any questions about the Self-Certification, do not hesitate to contact a Penn Foster Training Institute representative at 1-800-275-4410.
