 The BBB only accredits the business management of a school, not the quality of the curriculum, or training programs.

Our tuition price includes all you need to complete your training. You work through your curriculum independently, but not alone. Expert instructors and a helpful support staff are just a phone call, message board, or email away. During your 8-week externship, you will gain hands-on experience working with animals in a veterinary practice or hospital near you.

Please refer to the enclosed Program Outline for a comprehensive list of study topics and learning materials—all included with your complete Veterinary Assistant Program!
YOUR FUTURE AS A VETERINARY ASSISTANT.

You can join the ranks of trained Veterinary Assistants now working in the United States, in as little as six months, with distance training from Penn Foster Career School. Here are just a few of the options available when you complete your Career Diploma program:

• Become an Approved Veterinary Assistant (AVA) by sitting for the AVA exam.
• Work at an animal hospital providing specialized nursing care and preparing animals, instruments, and equipment for surgery.
• Obtain animal records and histories.
• Wash, feed, and care for animals at a zoo or stable.
• Communicate with pet owners and assist in surgical procedures at a private veterinary practice.

PREPARE FOR A REWARDING, HIGH-GROWTH CAREER.

As the pet population grows and advancements are made in veterinary medicine, so does the need for trained Veterinary Assistants. The U.S. Department of Labor expects opportunities in this field to be excellent, with an increase in employment of 10% through 2022.

With experience, trained Veterinary Assistants can earn up to $35,510 per year.* Work in an important and rewarding career!

CAREER SERVICES.

Penn Foster partners with Career Cruising to offer built-in career services for all students and alumni, available as soon as you enroll and at no cost. Services include assistance with creating a career portfolio, building a resume, preparation of cover letters, online job searches, and tips on interviewing.

IT PAYS TO CONTINUE YOUR EDUCATION.

The need for training and retraining in new skills for today’s changing job market has motivated many adults to continue their education. Penn Foster addresses this growing need with Career Diploma programs like the Veterinary Assistant Program. Preparing for your new career is easy and convenient because:

• Online lessons allow you to study on your schedule — when and where you choose.
• You work at your own pace — no set coursework timeline or test schedule. Study when you have time. Test when you feel ready.
• You can download study materials, submit assignments, take exams, email your instructor, check your grades, and review your student records online.
• You can chat with students and faculty, find study partners, and join tutoring sessions on the Penn Foster Community.
• You need no previous experience, just a High School Diploma or GED.

PENN FOSTER CAREER SCHOOL IS ACCREDITED.

• Nationally accredited by the Accrediting Commission of the Distance Education and Training Council (DETC).
• Licensed by the Pennsylvania State Board of Private Licensed Schools.
• As an International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET) Authorized Provider, Penn Foster Career School offers CEUs for its programs that qualify under IACET guidelines.
• Better Business Bureau accredited business with a BBB Rating of A.
• Penn Foster’s Veterinary Assistant program is approved by the National Association of Veterinary Technicians in America (NAVTA) and graduates of this program are eligible to sit for the national AVA designation exam.
